Trolley Park Terrace Grand Opening: An Affordable Housing Project Adjacent to the Euclid Avenue Station, San Diego's Second Largest Public Transit Station

October 24, 2016 was another exciting day in Council District 4 as we celebrated the grand opening for Trolley Park Terrace. It is a development that provides 52 units of affordable apartments for low-income families with access to the Euclid Avenue Station, San Diego's second largest public transit station. Thanks to the efforts of the City of San Diego, San Diego Housing Commission, Chelsea Investment Corporation, Jacobs Center for Neighborhood Innovation, and community members, this project has come to fruition.

Now, families are able to rent homes that are 18-26% below market rate and gain access to on-site computer literacy, financial literacy, and English as a Second Language classes. During my tour of the complex, I saw quality homes with resources and services that tenants need to improve their quality of life.

I was blown away by this project and I know it will have a lasting impact for current and future tenants for generations to come.
